Notes from the Sky Pilot's Page

November 2020

2 Corinthians 8: 14, 15 "At the present time your plenty will supply what they need, so that in turn their plenty will supply what you need. The goal is equality, as it is written: The one who gathered much did not have too much, and the one who gathered little did not have too little." (NIV)

"Give a gift in reciprocity for what you have taken." Robin Wall Kimmerer, Braiding Sweetgrass

This is the time of year when we find ourselves listing our gratitude. Many people list one gratitude a day for the 30 days of November on their social media account under the auspices of "30 Days of Gratitude." Not a bad practice... and what about the other 335 days? And when we name what we are grateful for, do we also list how we reciprocated? Rather than looking like, "I'm grateful for a good night's sleep." Could it not look like, "I'm grateful for a goodnight's sleep and I donated a night's stay for a wanderer in Red Lodge at one of our local hotels." Or, "I'm grateful for fresh eggs for breakfast and I volunteered to feed the farmer's chickens so that she could have a day's rest."

If one of our goals in our life is to support equality for all, how do we truly live into the reciprocity needed to make that happen? Is it possible to support full equality and yet "cherry pick" where our reciprocity lies? Do we only give out of a sense of gratitude or when our pockets overflow? Or do we give knowing that we will always receive what we need? Do we only share our joys of bounty or do we also share our joys of need? And when someone gives us a gift do we truly use it? And do we reciprocate without cause? I remember someone telling me that you should never return an empty dish, or a dish empty, whichever way that is grammatically correct. You get the idea. What if for every gift we received we gave one back, and I'm not talking thank you notes.

The Indigenous People live into their core value of reciprocity. I am grateful for this new learning in my life through the reading of "Braiding Sweetgrass" and my reciprocal action for this gratitude is to share this learning with all of you. Please join me for a book study of "Braiding Sweetgrass" on Sunday mornings at 9 am, November 1, 8, 15 and 22. The sermons for those 4 Sundays will use these teachings along with lessons from 2 Corinthians. Our theme for November will be "Gracious Reciprocity," and I look forward to learning together.

Pastor Pam

Moment from the Moderator

This is the time of year when our Church Nominating Committee is actively seeking new and continuing officers and members for committees which support the various ministries of our church. Our Church Bylaws state that the chair of the Nominating Committee is the Vice-Moderator of the church. Karen Kinney occupies that position and is assisted by Erinn Ackley and Diane Brown. If you receive a call from a member of this committee, please say “YES”. Better yet, give one of them a call and volunteer for a committee!

To assist you in deciding which ministry of the church you would like to enhance by your active membership on a committee, I will now give a synopsis of each ministries’ primary responsibility.

- Pastor-Parish: This ministry consists of three members responsible for quarterly meetings with the pastor to evaluate the pastor’s work, effort, and relationship with the congregation.
- Diaconate: This ministry consists of eight members responsible for oversight of worship, administration of sacraments, music, membership, and visitation.
- Facilities Management: This ministry consists of six members responsible for care, maintenance and security of the church’s physical facilities, equipment, and grounds.
- Christian Education: This ministry consists of five members responsible for adult education, children’s education, youth activities, nursery, and confirmation support.
- Stewardship and Mission: This ministry consists of four members responsible for interpreting the mission of our wider church through community support and involvement as well as conducting the annual stewardship financial campaign.

Unless noted otherwise, each committee meets monthly. For a complete listing of each committee’s responsibilities, please refer to the Church’s Bylaws.

I now leave you with three quotes that have guided my volunteerism activities throughout my life. I may have preferred to sit quietly and observe others in action, but instead these quotes guided my decision to say “YES”.

- “As we grow older, you will discover that you have two hands – one for helping yourself, the other for helping others.” (Audrey Hepburn)
- “The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in service of others.” (Gandhi)
- “We make a living by what we get. We make a life by what we give.” (Winston Churchill)

A Word from the Deacons....

The Deacons were busy this past month calling and emailing members regarding re-opening of our church for services. We had planned for attendance up to 35 to be socially distanced in the sanctuary with overflow into the Upper Room. Unfortunately, Carbon County and Montana Covid cases increased and recommendations to limit crowd gathering cancelled services. We are looking at ways to keep our congregation connected during these times of physical distancing. We continue to hold a weekly Zoom gathering on Wednesday at 9:00 AM. Other times and days will be considered if there is interest in joining a Zoom group. Members are encouraged to reach out to any of the deacons if you need assistance, have questions or concerns.

Deacon's Zoom Meeting Schedule

If you would like to be included in a weekly Zoom gathering with other church and community folks, here are the options. Please feel free to e-mail the appropriate Deacon to receive you Zoom invitation. The groups vary in their meeting agenda, some include prayer, readings and poetry. Others enjoy social time and catching up with one another. This is a great way to stay in touch, socialize and share your stories.

A Report from Facilities Management on Refreshing the Fellowship Hall

On October 23, the Church Council authorized renovation of the Fellowship Hall's carpet, paint and countertops. Thanks to gifts from David and Cheryl Whitcomb - to be used for the maintenance and repair of the church building and donated in memory of David's parents, Byron and Louise Whitcomb - we have funds to cover the work.

No thanks to Covid, but this work can be conveniently done now without disrupting the room's many activities in non-Covid times.

Before Covid, we all took the Fellowship Hall for granted. When we used the room, we focused on each other and the many activities there. But, since Covid came upon us last March, hardly anybody has even been in the room. So, when our ice maker sprang a leak last summer, it was days before anybody discovered that the floor was soaked. It was only when we went in to fix the leak and try to dry the carpet that we realized how long it had been since we re-did the Hall. That remodel was done back at the turn of this century, when the new kitchen wing was added.

Not having been in the room much since March, we noticed how tired the room looked. A large area of the worn carpet is now badly stained by the leak. The twenty-year-old carpet pattern is no longer available. Parts of the Formica countertops are starting to delaminate. Beneath those countertops, the cabinets need repairs. The room's paint is dingy and has many dings and chips. The photos on the walls have not been updated since our Church's volunteers went to New Orleans to help out after Hurricane Katrina back in 2005. In short, the time for renovation has come.

The carpet will be replaced with a more congenial pattern which will be installed as squares like those we installed in the Sanctuary. (This will make it much easier to fix any future accidents and worn areas.) The work and materials will be provided by locals. Gene Olson, who installed the previous carpeting, will handle removing the old carpet, and will supply and install the replacement at an estimated cost of $7418. (That amount was also the low bid.) The cabinets will have to be moved out to get at the water damaged carpeting beneath them and maybe take care of any mold if any is found. The cost of labor and materials for reinstalling the cabinets with replacement countertops is estimated at around $900 to $1600 depending on the countertop materials we select.

The Hall's walls, trim and doors will be repainted in a lighter color. We have specified a Benjamin Moore paint which we believe will require only a single coat after the surfaces are prepared. The estimate is about 5 gallons of paint at cost of approximately $250. The prep work and painting will be done by Terry Zwiener Painting at an estimated charge of $1800. Should a second coat of paint be needed, the painting costs will rise by $950.

The Church may also be able to enlist the help of the AmeriCorps volunteers who have been staying and working at the Roosevelt Center. Pastor Pam is conferring with the Red Lodge Area Community foundation about this possibility.

What remains will be the question of what to hang on the walls. We are asking the members of the Congregation for suggestions about whether to replace the “Katrina” photos and what to put up in place of or in addition to them. Please send suggestions to the Church office by e-mail (at rlccassistant@gmail.com), by phone (at 446-1444), or by mail (P.O. Box 786, Red Lodge, MT 59068).

2021 Pledge Drive

To everyone in the RLCC community, the Stewardship and Outreach Committee sends our most sincere THANK YOU for what has been done to date in our church's annual pledge drive. So far, 42 pledging units have pledged a total of $106,204 towards next year's projected budget of approximately $190,000. While the ongoing pandemic prevents us from gathering right now to share stew as we did last year, our committee hopes everyone is preparing to move successfully into 2021.

Christian Education is Here!

Hello All, its Zina General, the new Director of Christian Education.

It has been a whirlwind of a first couple weeks! I'm so grateful for the opportunity to impact the young ones in our town and spread God's love.

These last few weeks were filled with finding contacts for families to invite into our church school program, looking over different curriculums, locking in a Christmas pageant and brainstorming ideas for content for virtual learning fun. It is a process, however it is so encouraging to know that many families are interested!

I am looking forward to suggestions, so please feel free to send me an email at: rlcccdirector@gmail.com. You can also find me on Facebook at "Christian Ed-Director," or just call the church and leave me a message. Let's get connected!

VIRTUAL HARVEST DINNER

Red Lodge Community Church can't host our traditional Harvest Dinner this year. In brain-storming an outreach strategy, we decided on a virtual dinner. No, not using Zoom! We are spreading LOVE in Action by offering a meal in a different format: a $35 coupon to our own Beartooth IGA for any families or individuals in need.

If you know of anyone or family that would enjoy this gift, contact the church at rlccassistant@gmail.com. If you would like to donate towards this gift, you can do so through our website: www.redlodgecommunitychurch.com or send a check to RLCC, Box 786, Red Lodge, MT 59068. Donations and suggestions of families to receive coupons will be accepted through November 7.

RLCC folks are going to miss working on the all-day turkey dinner this year and seeing friends and family gather in the church, but plan on throwing the big event next November live and in person!

Thanks from Committee members Patty Schuessler, Karen and Don Kinney

A taste of history

Add a yummy, authentic touch to your Thanksgiving meal with this recipe.

What you need:

What you do:

1. Pour cream into the jar and close the lid tightly.
2. Shake vigorously about 8 minutes, until a solid lump of butter forms. (Take turns with a friend!)
